— CORTELLIS CLINICAL TRIALS INTELLIGENCE

Accelerate clinical trial development decisions and portfolio strategy

Clinical trials don't succeed by chance.

Cortellis Clinical Trials Intelligence ensures you're working with the latest clinical intelligence, so you can make the most informed decisions fast.

Discover unmet needs in rare diseases and niche patient populations, conduct advanced patient stratification, efficiently get your drug through the clinical phases, keep track of medical device trials and all trials involving biomarkers, leverage clinical informatics, and evaluate the competitive landscape.

Cortellis Clinical Trials Intelligence provides expertly curated clinical trials information, skillfully integrated with other scientific and competitive intelligence from Thomson Reuters.

With comprehensive coverage of clinical trials and rare diseases, gene variant and biomarker indexing, and links to biomarker and ontology APIs, Cortellis Clinical Trials Intelligence goes above and beyond competitive solutions in helping pharma and biotech companies identify and grasp opportunity. And that's before we mention our industry partnerships, data delivery via API, and tight collaboration with our discovery and professional services teams.
